"Be You" (Kids Matter) Parent Café:

Dear parents and families,

After the Year 2 classes' Primary School assembly next week you are invited to attend the 'Be You Café'.

The school welcomes all parents and family members to join members of the school's Be You action team and other members of the school community over a warm drink and light snack before school finishes.

When: Thursday 23 May

Time: Following the primary school assembly until 3:00pm

Where: School staff room

If you would like any more information please contact:

Mischa Karp – Student Wellbeing Leader or

Toni Foster - Pastoral Care Worker at the school

Kind regards,
Your Be You Action Team

What is Be You?

Led by Beyond Blue, in partnership with Early Childhood Australia and headspace, Be You is a national initiative that supports the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people, from the early years to 18.

'Be You' fosters a mentally healthy learning community by:

- Promoting the development of mentally healthy learning communities.
- Fostering partnerships with families and community.
- Building educators' capacity to teach skills for wellbeing and resilience.
- Guiding educators to support children and young people experiencing mental health issues.
